Hello Mr. Pederson

We write further to the interim agreement made between our clients effective July 4, 2024 (attached).

To date the required $1,500.00 payment has not been made. Apparently the cheque is in the mail.

In addition, your client now advises that she is hospitalized and will not be vacating July 31, 2024, as agreed. Please provide us with confirmation of her hospitalization so that our client may consider what their next steps are. We require confirmation by noon July 31, 2024 or will assume that this is yet another delay.

Your client's recent emails to our client are below for your ease of reference.
